I. CHECKLIST

1. To do before the return

The returnee should:

- prepare valid travel documents: valid passport or laissez-passer.
- request documents from the German authorities that might be needed later on, such as birth certificate, marriage certificate, divorce certificate, educational certificates, etc. issued in Germany.
- get information concerning the arrival at the airport and the onward journey. There are shuttle buses from the airport to the city center and bus stations for onward transportation to other provinces and taxis for specific transport demands.
- there are no vaccinations required for Vietnamese to enter the country.
- find a temporary accommodation.

2. To do immediately after the return

The returnee should:

- carry out residence book registration (see IV.2.b for the required documents).
- register his/her children up to 6 years old with free health insurance by the government. Contact: People's Committee at commune/precinct level, where the returnee has the residence registration. The birth certificate of the child is required.
- apply for social welfare. Contact: People's Committee at commune level for the application.
- contact local schools or other educational institutions for the education of the children.

II. HEALTH CARE

1. Health care system

a. General information on the health care system

Vietnam's health care system is divided in compulsory health insurance and voluntary health insurance.

b. Compulsory health insurance

- Employees of companies or organizations participating in the compulsory social insurance need to join compulsory health insurance. For the fees: see Table 1.
- Pupils and students also participate in the compulsory health insurance.

Table 1. Participants paying compulsory social insurance, health insurance, and unemployment insurance at the same time

Employers (%)			Employees (%)			Total (%)
Social insurance	Health insurance	Unemployment insurance	Social insurance	Health insurance	Unemployment insurance
18	3	1	8	1,5	1	32,5

Note: % = % of the monthly salaries or allowance of the employees.

c. Voluntary health insurance

- Open to all members of one household except those paying compulsory health insurance.
- Children up to 6 years old are provided with free health insurance by the government. Contact the people's committee where registered for the free health insurance card, birth certificate and residence registration documents of the child are needed.
- Fee: First person in the household pays 4.5% of the general minimal salary each month; second, third, and fourth person pay 90%, 80%, 70% of the fees paid by the first person; fifth person pays 60%.
- Minimum salaries are defined and adjusted by the government.
- Registration: Contact agencies of social insurance at people's committee where registered.

d. Benefits and Costs

- 80% of the costs are covered by the insurance.
- Costs and benefits provided by private insurance companies offering health care packages may differ.

2. Medical treatment and availability and costs of medication

a. Medical facilities and doctors

Please see lists of hospitals in regional centers under VIII.

Provincial hospitals specialized in treating serious diseases offer all essential diagnostic services and are equipped with necessary facilities.

b. Procedures of admission

Health care service is open to everyone; national ID and health insurance card are required.

Having no insurance, the beneficiary has to bear all costs; no further documents are required.

c. Availability and costs of medication

Most of the common medical generics are available in Vietnam.

III. LABOR MARKET AND EMPLOYMENT

1. Labor market situation

2. Ways / assistance to find employment

Public employment assistance centers are available in all provinces. Private services also exist in big cities. Vacant positions are announced in mass media. The belows are the links to the main websites: www.vietnamwork.com; www.careerlink.vn | www.mywork.com

3. Unemployment assistance

a. General information on public and/or private unemployment assistance

There is an unemployment insurance system run by the Government.

b. Access, especially for returnees

- Eligibility/target group: employees with non-fixed term or fixed term labor contracts of at least 3 months have to participate in the unemployment insurance.
- Requirements: The participants
 - have paid 12 month unemployment insurance fees within 24 or 36 months (depending on the employment types) before the labor contract termination.
 - have submitted application for unemployment allowance within 3 months after contract termination.
 - are not employed within 15 days after submitting application for unemployment allowance.
- Registration procedure: All districts have offices for the registration of unemployment assistance (in Job Placement Center or Department of Labour, Invalids and Social Affairs at district level) to obtain benefits.
- Required documents:
 - Application form
 - Copy of identity card (the applicant must show the original for checking)
 - Copy of labor contract
 - Copy of social insurance book indicating unemployment insurance payment (the applicant must show the original for checking)

c. Benefits and costs

The monthly insurance allowance is equal to 60% of average salary of the last 6 months but does not exceed 5 times of the regional minimum salary. The beneficiary will receive 3 months allowance for the last 12 months, in which the fees have been payed, and one additional month allowance for every 12 months paid fee. The beneficiary can receive allowance up to a maximum of 12 months. For costs see above Table 1.

4. Further education possibilities and vocational trainings

Vocational training centers are available in all provinces. However, many companies provide on-the-job training by themselves after recruitment.

IV. HOUSING

1. Housing situation

a. Average rent, running costs/utilities

Costs and facilities of accommodation can differ, ranged from VND 1,500,000 (1 one room simple conditions and shared bathroom in suburb areas) to about USD 2,000-2,500 (modern house of 200 square meters each with full complex of public facilities environment). The electricity price is progressive. The average electricity price for household consumption is 1,747 VND/kWh. However, this price is applied to those who rent apartments only. Those who rent 1 room in dormitory business have to pay the electricity at business rate, which is about 50% higher. The water price for household consumption is progressive, 5,973 VND/m³ (for the first 10m³), 7,052 VND/m³ (from 10 to 20m³), 8,669 VND/m³ (from 20 to 30m³) and 15,929 VND/m³ (from 30m³ above). The price for service business is 22,068 VND/m³.

b. Demand and supply

There is plenty of accommodation for rent everywhere at different price range.

c. Housing facilities for returnees / social housing

There is no social housing available for returnees.

2. Ways / assistance to find accommodation

- a. There are services assisting at the search for housing depending on your demands with certain levels of fees. Most of the services are private businesses. Houses and apartment for rent are advertised in newspapers, websites or leaflets.

b. Necessary documents for residence book registration

- Identity card
- Form “Announcement on changes in residence book and resident number”
- Documents serving as a tool to prove legal ownership of real property: Upon different dwelling houses, proper papers of real property shall be presented as regulated above
- Other papers directly relevant to specific cases as follows:
 - Marriage certificate (in case where wife and husband live together). In case of absence of marriage certificate, birth certificate of their children can be presented instead
 - Birth certificate (provided that they want to register permanent residence for newborn)
 - Decisions on job transfer, recruitment, return from military service, retirement or job discontinuation
 - License granted by Immigration Department (depending on specific cases for the purpose of presentation: repatriation certificate or recommendation letter)
 - Residence book or collective residence registration certificate or identification card (if any)

3. Social grants for housing

There are no social grants for housing available.

V. SOCIAL WELFARE

1. Social welfare system

There are two main kinds of social relief allowances:

- Orphans less than 16 years old
- Elderly aged above 60 without supporters

An application and presentation of the current situation at the people’s committee and the District people’s committee is required.

2. Pension system

a. General information on the pension system

- Vietnam’s pension system is composed of a compulsory social insurance and a voluntary social insurance.
- Target groups:
 - Retirees: men at 60 and women at 55 years
 - Retirement age applicable to those who undertake difficult or hazardous jobs or work in mountainous, bordering areas or remote islands and other exceptional cases shall be regulated by the government
 - Any person paying social insurance premium for at least 20 years

b. Benefits

- Monthly pension allowance is equal to 75% of average monthly salaries of whole periods of time paying social insurance. This amount will be reduced by 1% for every year of early retirement.
- One time allowance is paid to those paying social insurance only 3 months to less than 20 years. The allowance is equivalent to 1.5 month of average monthly salaries of whole periods of time paying social insurance.

c. Costs

- Compulsory social insurance: Employees working on a contract basis for a period of at least 3 months or unlimited time according to the legal regulations of labor.
Fees: See above, Table 1.
- Voluntary social insurance: anyone aged from 15 willing to participate.
Fees are at least equal to the general minimal salary.

3. Vulnerable Groups

There are projects to support different target vulnerable groups. The assistance varies depending on the projects.

VI. EDUCATION

1. Educational system

- Stipends for minority students:
 - Pupils and students who come from ethnic minorities studying in public schools and universities are entitled to be granted a policy scholarship and social welfare.

4. Approval and verification of foreign diplomas

Foreign diplomas and certificates are accepted in Vietnamese labour markets.

VII. CONCRETE SUPPORT FOR RETURNEES

1. Reintegration assistance programs

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) provides reintegration assistance/grant to irregular migrants voluntarily returned under IOM AVRR programs to ensure the sustainability of returns. IOM and partners provide migrants with socio-economic support to promote their self-sufficiency and contributions to their local communities. The IOM assistance includes*:

- Post-arrival reception arrangements
- Onward travel to the final destination
- Temporary accommodation, if needed
- Short- and/or medium-term reintegration assistance, including business set-ups, vocational training, formal education, medical assistance and other tailor-made assistance according to the returnees' special needs

 vary in different programs (depending on the respective AVRR projects and resources made available by donors)*

2. Financial and administrative support

Besides IOM, there is no official scheme to support returnees.

3. Support to start income generating activities

AGRIBANK - Vietnam Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development regularly provides soft loans for income generating activities to people in difficulties of certain categories.
